

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Remembrance Day was first held on November 11, 1919. On this day each year, we honour members of the Canadian armed forces who serve or have served during times of conflict, war and peace. Let's learn more about Remembrance Day.

This week's activities: Remembrance Day Books – Word Search

Remembrance Day Books

You can find the books listed below at the library (the ones marked with * are also always available on HooplaKids). Think about the following questions when reading these books:

- Why was November 11 chosen as the day to celebrate Remembrance Day?
- What is the significance of the poppy?
- Can you name some of the countries that were involved in the First World War?
